INTRODUCTION:

The complainant in this case will be body #25 to be recovered in this investigation. This body was unearthed by Tommy Smith while operating a maintainer on the beach in Chambers County while attempting to locate the graves in this investigation. This body was found in a shallow grave and was approx. 170 feet from the other recovered body which will be carried as body #23 and this was east of #23. The preliminary inquest was conducted by J.P., Mary Dugat, of Winnie, Texas, and the body was ordered to the Harris County Morgue by Jim Sterling Ambulance. This complainant is unknown at this time, he appears to be a white male and the body was badly decomposed.

IDENTIFICATION BE COMPL.

Dr. Jachimczyk called this date and stated that he had made positive identification of Aguirre by dental charts furnished from Bernard M. Solomon DDS. Dr. Jachimczyk stated that cause of death will be by strangulation and gagging.

This will be body #24 received at the County Morgue.
